900 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Antique ring with two 0.20 ct diamonds and floral engraving. A timeless ring with an original shape, composed of 14-carat gold and platinum elements, adorned with two "antique" brilliant-cut diamonds with a total weight of approximately 0.20 ct (GH color, SI2-I1 clarity). Two small, irregularly shaped rosette-cut diamonds, with a total weight of 0.01 ct, complete this jewel. A ring with exceptional charm thanks to its minimalist shape, whose antique spirit is underlined by a delicate decorative plant engraving on the side of the rail. Origin: Czechoslovakia, circa 1925. Very good condition, no reserve. Product weight: 2.76 g. Jewelry size: 10 (EU 50) - correction possible on request. A certificate from a gemological laboratory is included with the purchase.
