

Pair Of 19th Century Curtains In Red Adrianople Printed Canvas - Antique Fabric

580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Length : 303 cm

Width : 88 cm

Description

"Pair of 19th Century Curtains in Adrianople Red Printed Canvas - antique fabric" Superb pair of antique curtains dating from the 19th century, made from a cotton fabric printed in a rare and intense Adrianople red. This deep shade, typical of the precious fabrics of the period, enhances an abundant plant decoration, where stylized flowers, foliage and flower baskets are elegantly intertwined, evoking the decorative richness of the Second Empire or refined country houses. Each curtain is adorned on one side with a gathered flounce, bringing an additional touch of refinement and movement to the ensemble. The overall condition is very good, the colors remain fresh and vibrant despite the age of the fabric, which testifies to its beautiful original quality. With generous dimensions - 303 cm high by 88

Dealer

Galerie Rose Couleur

French antiques textiles

Mobile : 06 12 29 60 53

13, Les Arènes

Névian 11200

cm wide each - these panels can be used in many ways: As door or window curtains in an old house, As decorative wall hangings in a room with a classic style or neo-baroque, or as scenographic elements to decorate a space between two windows, a four-poster bed, or a staircase. A rare, decorative textile piece that is very evocative of the French art of living. ref rdx rouges