Description

A rare and refined fruit drink service from the renowned French Legras glassworks, circa end of 19th century or early 20th century. The clear glass is delicately decorated with enamel-painted purple iris blossoms and long green leaves, accented with fine gilded borders. The naturalistic decoration captures the vitality and elegance of spring, a hallmark of Art Nouveau design. The set includes a tall pitcher and matching glasses, ideal for serving water or fruit drinks or as a decorative centerpiece. The pitcher, with its graceful form, can also be used separately as a vase.
