Description

We present this elegant antique Italian dresser dating back to the second half of the 18th century, the Louis XVI period. This extremely refined dresser, whose features suggest it was crafted in the cabinetmaking workshops of northern Italy, is a testament to its elegance and refinement. Crafted from fine solid walnut, its linearity perfectly reflects the taste of the era, which sought perfection through extreme elegance and refinement, often without decoration.

Functionally, it features three convenient drawers at the bottom. Its rarest feature is the upper drawer, where the flap opens to reveal a perfect surface for quick writing or consulting documents. Inside, you'll find four small drawers. You can certainly consider placing this exquisite dresser in any room of the home and enhance it
