Description

Rare model of tapestry for a piece of furniture, this oil on canvas frame is remarkable for its magnificence, executed with virtuosity and representing three floral compositions very rich in variety and colors. A central one in a large Medici vase and two lateral ones in the crossed planters. The generous composition of this sofa back or bed headboard, its large size in the movement, the majesty of the representation, by the pictorial quality and the very elegant design, all give this piece of curiosity taken from the reserves of the Manufacture the unique and precious side; in fact often made on paper and more fragile gifts this beautiful model on robust tapestry canvas is preserved from time and presented on a robust recent key frame (20th). A useful curiosity to compose a headboard, as it is
