Description

Our 19th century presentation stand is made of gilded brass with a precious openwork decoration and adorned with white and especially blue gemstones, in the colors of the Virgin. It rests on four acanthus leaf feet. This small lectern is a tabor, in memory of the place where the Transfiguration of Christ took place, who appeared for a few moments during his earthly life, resplendent with Light to three of his apostles. A Marian monogram sits in the center of this beautiful piece. Good condition despite some marks on the top. Dimensions: 16 cm high. Square base of 25.5 cm Reference 236
