Description

The +: double doors pediment. 19th century painted wooden door pediment. This broken pediment is composed, in its middle, of an oval medallion, said to be in the antique style, surmounted by a gilded lion's head, and framed by two lion's paws. It ends at the ends with two interrupted ramps painted with sculpted olive branches. The medallion is decorated with entwined and painted blooming flowers. Traces of humidity and freshness. Good condition.
