Description

Elegant Limoges porcelain coffee service, crafted by the Augé-Munsch Narbonne manufactory, dating from the late 19th century / early 20th century. This refined set is distinguished by its delicate decorative details: white porcelain finely adorned with violet floral garlands, gilded highlights in fine gold, a soft light blue accent at the base, adding freshness and elegance, twisted forms and gracefully curved handles, showcasing the meticulous craftsmanship of the manufactory. The set is designed for 11 persons and includes: 1 coffee pot with lid, 1 covered sugar bowl, 1 milk jug, 11 coffee cups, 11 saucers. Each piece bears on the reverse the A. Munsch - Narbonne mark, signature of the Augé-Munsch house, renowned for the quality of its Limoges porcelain decorated in the refined taste of the late 19th century. A
