

Silver-plated Samovar - Maison Balaine Paris, Early 20th Century, Art Nouveau Style

850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Height : 36 cm

Depth : 20 cm

Description

This early 20th-century silver-plated samovar, signed Maison Balaine, Paris, is a fine example of the Art Nouveau style. Its elegant, flowing lines reflect the refined aesthetic characteristic of the period. Measuring 36 cm in height and 20 cm in depth, it is a beautiful representation of Parisian tableware craftsmanship at the turn of the century. The finely worked silver-plating showcases the exceptional expertise of Maison Balaine, renowned for its high-quality pieces. This samovar is perfect for Art Nouveau collectors, enthusiasts of historic design, or as an elegant decorative object. It brings a touch of prestige and authenticity to any interior. Condition: Very good condition for its age, with a natural patina highlighting its authenticity and period charm.

Dealer

Galerie Renaissance

Design | Antiques | Art | Minimalism | Art Deco | Modern |
1950s

Mobile : 06 73 03 23 14

85 rue des Rosiers, Galerie 28

Saint-Ouen 93400