Description

Beautiful set of 10 antique tea towels in natural ecru damask linen with small alternating "partridge eye" and zigzag patterns. In order to hang them, they each have two hand-embroidered hooks in an opposite corner. Early 20th century period. All the charm of the time with their beautiful ecru material with a strong weave. Ideal set to decorate your old kitchen! Dimensions: 77 cm x 57 cm They are old. Most are new and some have been used very little; they are thick and without wear, some stains of age or storage because they remained unused for many years. I left the old label and the string which attest to this. Please note that I respond to all requests about my objects.
