Description

The Louis XV walnut burl bureau from Venice is a true jewel of antique furniture. It combines aesthetic refinement and functionality, offering a piece that is not only decorative, but also a real cultural investment.

Quality materials and attention to detail

Crafted in fine walnut burl, this bureau reflects the Venetian artisanal tradition of the 18th century. Each grain of the wood reveals itself with natural elegance, creating a unique and sophisticated visual effect. Moreover, the sinuous profiles and soft lines typical of the Louis XV style make it immediately recognizable and distinguished.

The bureau is in excellent general condition, ready to be used without the need for restoration.

Its dimensions, 115x60x114H cm, make it perfect for enriching both classic and modern interiors, creating a refined balance between past and present.

A functional and fascinating piece

Beyond its aesthetic value, this bureau also stands out for its practicality. The drop-down top provides a useful writing or working space, while the drawers offer generous storage capacity. In this way, beauty and functionality merge into a single object.

Furthermore, thanks to its harmonious design, the bureau can be placed either in an elegant living room or in a professional office. Thus, it is not only a piece to admire, but also a reliable companion for daily life.

A piece of history for your collection

Owning a Venetian Louis XV bureau means holding in your hands a fragment of history.

Venetian craftsmen created these pieces to satisfy the refined tastes of the elite of the time.

Therefore, acquiring this piece means introducing into your home a true symbol of culture and tradition.

Additionally, compared to other antique furniture, the walnut burl bureau retains a timeless elegance that easily integrates into different settings.

Finally, thanks to its authenticity and excellent condition, it represents a secure and valuable choice for the most discerning collectors.
