Description

Elegant bronze table clock, decorated with a polychrome cloisonné enamel panel with a floral motif on the lower part, typical of the Napoleon III style revisited at the beginning of the 20th century. The enameled dial, decorated with Roman numerals, has a circular medallion in matching cloisonné in its center, around the winding holes - a rare refined detail for this type of piece. The whole is protected by a domed glass. The mechanism is in working order, with the pendulum present and the key provided. A possible revision by a watchmaker is recommended for optimal adjustment.
