Description

Rare Oblong Sterling Silver Coupe (925/1000), signed Tiffany & Co - Paris, crafted in London in the 19th century. This exceptional piece rests on a richly pierced pedestal and features a finely chased Rocaille décor, composed of scrolls, shells, and arabesques in the taste of the 18th century. The coupe bears the British hallmarks of London, certifying its authenticity and allowing it to be precisely dated by the corresponding date letter. It perfectly illustrates the refined craftsmanship of English silversmithing, combined with the international prestige of Tiffany & Co, the luxury house founded in 1837 and established in both Paris and London by the late 19th century. With its elegant openwork design, this coupe is a testament to the European decorative refinement and the
