Description

Statue of Tara, 19th century. Bronze. This statue represents Tara, a female bodhisattva of compassion in Buddhism and the protective deity of Tibet. She is depicted in her non-tantric form, seated on a lotus in a Dhyana (meditation) position. Her right hand is in the dana mudra (giving gesture), while her left hand is in the vitarka mudra (discernment gesture). A lotus blossoms from her left shoulder, a symbol of purity and spiritual elevation. Height: 34 cm
