Description

Superb oil on canvas depicting a playful putto lying in a flowerbed, delicately embraced by lush vegetation. The treatment of the flesh, tender and luminous, contrasts magnificently with the freshness of the foliage and the colorful brilliance of the roses in the foreground. A painting full of grace and poetry, in the great tradition of 19th century decorative scenes, ideal for adorning a refined interior. A timeless subject, combining childlike sweetness and decorative elegance, which will appeal to lovers of romantic art and old-world charm. Condition: beautiful conservation, some traces of wear from use. For transport (measurements not going through the post) ask me for a quote.
