Description

Exceptional oil painting by the painter Charles Henri Maxime Reymond. Pseudonym of Carlos Reymond born in 1881 in Paris and died in 1970 in Nice. He married Marthe Lebasque and became the son-in-law of the painter Henri Lebasque. He settled in St Tropez. At 16 he already received advice and encouragement from the painter Claude Monet. He became a student of Paul Signac. He frequented the greatest such as: Louis Valtat, Charles Camoin, Henri Mangin and many others... his pictorial movement is post-impressionist and pointillist. Here is a very beautiful painting which represents his immense talent as an artist. With this body of water where a beautiful building is reflected! Very nice light with a superb color palette! Small boat and fisherman probably in the center of the painting
