Description

Damask linen tablecloth (early 20th century) marked with the double monogram PB, hand-embroidered on a floral background composed of seeds, friezes and garlands that come to life under the effect of backlighting or light. Good hold and preserved material density. Condition: Note a very small old repair located about 45 cm from a side border hem, as well as a very very slight light foxing of barely 1/2 cm located near a monogram; these details are minor (see photos). ?
