Description

Children's primer shotgun dating from the second half of the 19th century. The trigger and hammer mechanism are in working order, its ramrod is present and comes out easily. Very beautiful chiseling work composed of leaves and interlacing on the hammer, the plates, the trigger guard and engravings of leaves and geometric shapes along the stock. Functional primer reserve in the wood of the stock. Slight oxidation inside this smooth barrel and missing sight. Information and other photos on request.
