Description

Vase by Daum Majorelle This exceptional vase, by Daum & Majorelle, is a masterful work that illustrates the perfect union between glass art and wrought ironwork, characteristics of the Art Nouveau and Art Deco styles. The result of the prestigious collaboration between Daum, renowned for its expertise in art glass, and Louis Majorelle, an exceptional master cabinetmaker and ironworker, this rare piece is a true testament to the luxury and refinement of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Made of marbled glass, this vase displays deep and captivating shades, enhanced by gold inclusions, which give it a unique shine and a precious texture. Its wrought iron base and ornaments bear witness to Majorelle's talent, adding a touch of sophistication and character to the whole. A
