Description

Beautiful set of a tablecloth and four napkins (late 19th century), in embroidered damask linen BB. In the background, a large floral decoration is set in a garland running along the four borders, populated by leaves and flowers in drooping clusters. Marked and shimmering damask on quality linen with a pleasant feel and a very fluid drape. White embroidery with elegant curves and a strong relief. Antique white linen, washed and ironed. Condition: It should be noted a peak of rust visible only on the reverse of the tablecloth, located 6 cm from a selvage (see photo). ? Buy this item on our website?
