Description

Art-Deco style hammered wrought iron entrance hall decorated with flowers and foliage, from the mid-20th century. It has an umbrella stand and its tray, an original beveled central mirror surmounting a green Alpine marble shelf, (we note a tiny chip on the edge, see photo), a clothes brush holder, a hat rack shelf and 4 wrought iron hooks. It is necessary to fix it to the wall directly using the holes drilled for this, or by moving it away (to avoid a baseboard or large pipes for example), thanks to the support added for this purpose. (see photo) Transport quote on request specifying the city.
