800 EUR

Signature : Wedgwood, Makeig-Jones

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

An exceptionally rare pair of Wedgwood lustre miniature bowls in the Z5294 pattern, designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones around 1915. The Blue Lustre exterior is enhanced with subtle mottling and a continuous frieze of gilded flying geese. Inside, the Orange Lustre ground with crimson mottling is bordered by gilt bird silhouettes, with a central hand-painted hummingbird in fine gold. Miniature lustre bowls of this size -- 2.8 cm high, 5.6 cm diameter -- were produced in very limited quantities, and matched pairs are seldom seen. Highly collectible and in excellent condition, this set offers both rarity and beauty for the serious collector.
