Description

Charming, finely carved agate cameo depicting a female profile in antique style. The quality of the engraving is distinguished by the precision of the features and the elegance of the face, typical of 19th-century creations, a time when the art of the cameo underwent a great revival. The finely crafted gold setting particularly highlights the stone and demonstrates the jewelry expertise of this period. These jewels were highly prized in the 19th century, as much for their refinement as for their evocation of classical antiquity. Dimensions: Height 5 cm - Width 6 cm Italy period: 19th century.
