Description

Work by James Coignard, an artist born in Tours in 1925 and who died in Paris in 2008. James Coignard frequented the greatest artists with whom he was able to exchange ideas and enrich his work. Among them, Marchand, Papart, Atlan, Baboulene, Clavé, etc. Our painting depicts not a card player, but rather a card reader. A beautiful work, undoubtedly influenced by Clavé's carnival portraits.
