

Lalique - "crouching Nude Woman" Satin Crystal Figurine - Pressed Glass Sculpture, 20th Century

290 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Crystal

Description

Elegant satin crystal figurine signed Lalique France, depicting a crouching nude woman, her body gracefully folded into an intimate and contemplative pose. This model perfectly embodies the purity and sensuality of René Lalique's creations, where light and transparency highlight the delicacy of the female form. The satin finish enhances the curves, the fine detailing of the hair, and the subtlety of the posture, at once poetic and timeless. Crafted in molded and satin-finished crystal, this sculpture reflects the exceptional artistry of the Lalique glassworks, renowned worldwide for its refinement and elegance. A highly collectible piece, ideal for enhancing a collection of French crystal or as a decorative object in the Art Deco style. Details: Maker: Lalique France

Dealer

Galerie Renaissance

Design | Antiques | Art | Minimalism | Art Deco | Modern | 1950s

Mobile : 06 73 03 23 14

85 rue des Rosiers, Galerie 28

Saint-Ouen 93400

(engraved signature)Model: Crouching Nude WomanMaterial: Satin-finished pressed crystalPeriod: 20th CenturyCondition: Excellent condition