

Lalique - Frosted And Polished Crystal Figurine "leda And The Swan", Art Deco, 20th Century

290 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Crystal

Height : 11,5 cm

Description

Charming figurine signed Lalique France, depicting the famous mythological scene of Leda and the Swan, where feminine grace meets the delicate elegance of the swan. Made of pressed molded clear crystal with a frosted and polished finish, this piece showcases the exceptional craftsmanship of the René Lalique House. The contrast between frosted and polished areas enhances the relief and the beauty of the scene. Details: Material: frosted and polished clear crystal Technique: pressed molded Signature: "Lalique France" engraved under the base Height: 11.5 cm Style: Art Deco Condition: excellent, no chips or cracks Period: 20th century Produced post-1945, this figurine is sought after by Lalique crystal collectors and lovers of 20th-century decorative

Dealer

Galerie Renaissance

Design | Antiques | Art | Minimalism | Art Deco | Modern | 1950s

Mobile : 06 73 03 23 14

85 rue des Rosiers, Galerie 28

Saint-Ouen 93400

arts. It exemplifies René Lalique's unique ability to combine decorative art and mythological storytelling. A refined and collectible piece, perfect for completing a prestigious collection.