Description

Three-tiered wall shelf, combining utility and decoration. The architectural patinated metal frame consists of four uprights in twisted columns, punctuated by rings and small capitals, topped with pinnacles. The openwork spacers present a neo-Gothic vocabulary (shields, crosses, trefoil motifs), decorated with fantastic creatures in high relief: dragons entwined around the uprights. The three wooden shelves in a warm tone contrast elegantly with the metal. In the upper part, two original suspension rings allow direct hanging on the wall: this is indeed a wall shelf, decorative and functional. Condition: Very good condition of use and presentation. To be noted for honesty: a small chip missing at the back near a suspension ring; this micro-gap, invisible once the shelf is hung on the wall, does
