Description

Very beautiful monstrance in gilded bronze set with cut and faceted ruby-colored crystals in the neo-Gothic style, from the Napoleon III period, 19th century. In the Christian religion, rubies are considered to represent the blood of Christ. Four-lobed base with a row of foliage and pearls. These motifs are repeated in the knot as well as in the radiating bezel, surmounted by a cross. Vermeil lunula. Minerva hallmark. With its original case. France, 19th century. Very good condition. Dimensions: Height: 65.5 cm Width: 30.5 cm
