Description

An outstanding Wedgwood Fairyland Lustre bowl in the rare Z4830 pattern, designed by Daisy Makeig-Jones circa 1915. The Orange Lustre exterior, richly stained and mottled in blue and brown, is ornamented with finely gilded butterflies. The interior, in Mother-of-Pearl Lustre with green stainings, features a central butterfly motif hand-painted in iridescent hues and gold. Measuring 5.2 cm in height and 9.5 cm in diameter, this piece holds significant appeal for collectors -- early Lustre bowls in such excellent condition are increasingly difficult to find, and Z4830 is a documented pattern from Wedgwood's Decoration Book. It represents
