Description

Spectacular and ornamental "Victorian" pot in white Minton porcelain in the Baroque style, generously animated, dappled, with highlights of golden and purple threads, with pretty alternating scrolls, generous button lid grip and on the sides decorated with important grips with pretty movement of a thick material and decorated with falls of acanthus foliage and animated friezes. The imposing presence of this beautiful English piece from the middle of the 19th century shows the remarkable know-how of this famous Manufacture in the production of high quality. The importance of this piece makes it a real centerpiece and the opulence of this Aristocratic and neat piece a real decorative asset, especially since this old piece is preserved from time, no wear or cracks... In short, a very beautiful piece
