Description

Curious little bronze representing a minstrel on one foot holding two flutes in his hands. He is wearing a large feathered hat and dressed in medieval style. This subject most likely represents the rat-catching from Hameli, a Grimm tale, transcribing a German legend. The proof is of great finesse of execution and a beautiful medal patina. Mounted on an alabaster base with a small dent at one corner. Height with base 12.5 cm Base 7 x 4.2 cm
