Description

Japanese sculpture of a lion - Shishi. Made of glazed ceramic and hand-painted. Under his left paw, he holds a Temari ball. The lion is depicted in a very decorative and ornamental manner.

Japan, Meiji period (1868-1912). Height 21.5 cm, length 21.5 cm, width 11 cm. Good condition, soiling, slight scratches on the paint and cracks which, however, appear to be firing defects and not damage. Free shipping within the European Union! I send parcels by insured mail (DPD or DHL). All items are packaged very carefully. Payment by international bank transfer. I will issue a certificate of authenticity upon request.
