280 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 210

Height : 130

Description

Reissue from the 70s - 80s of the Aubusson tapestry entitled "Les vendanges" whose original, very large size (495 cm X 246 cm), is in the Cluny museum. Made in the workshops of La Reigny, numbered 98874 reference 5076/00 and 210 cm x 130 cm in dimensions. The canvas on the back is in perfect condition and the colors are very well preserved. The detail of the composition shows 4 very identifiable scenes: the picking (harvest itself), the crushing, the pressing and the putting in barrels. The tapestry is accompanied by the certificate sewn on the back. Its large size and the excellent color fastness mean that it will dress your wall on its own in a stylish room as well as in a modern environment, in a cellar or even a tasting room ...
