

Césarine Davin-mirvault, Rare Portrait Of A Young Girl From The 19th Century

13 500 EUR

Signature : Césarine Davin -Mirvault

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 39

Height : 47

Description

Rare and beautiful portrait representing an elegant young girl with a straw hat and green organza veil, holding a red drawing board under her arm, on the cover of the latter, the signature of Césarine Davin-Mirvault and a date 1827?

Césarine Davin-Mirvault 1773 1844 French painter and miniaturist, rare artist, she had as a teacher among others David, many are in museums among others a portrait of the ambassador of Persia and Marshal Lefebvre are preserved in Versailles, others in private collections Artist "rare" on the market, work of high quality, delightful subject of this young girl with her drawing board, quality work is presented in very good condition, with old retouching, its wooden frame and gilded stucco is in restoration

Dealer

Galerie Etienne Thuriet

Mobilier, Objets d'art et décoration XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 02.37.22.73.90

Mobile : 06.13.61.34.95

41-43, rue des Changes

Chartres 28000