Description

The Old Flower Paintings category features a beautiful oil painting on canvas, a floral still life from the Early 20th Century. This is a delightful still life depicting a bouquet of white and pink peonies in a clear glass vase. The peony flowers range in color from deep pink to creamy white, with delicate nuances that enhance the softness of the petals. The leaves are a vivid green, contrasting with the neutral gray-green background. The dark background provides depth and subtly reflects the colors, conveying harmony and freshness. The canvas painting is signed lower right by Eschbach, a French painter known for his portraits, seascapes, landscapes, and flower paintings. Paul André Jean Eschbach (1881-1961) was born in Paris and was a student of the painters Jean-Paul Laurens and Pharaon de
