Oldest Volkstedt Porcelain Group, Fortune Teller With Cupid, 1915

450 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

A well-defined German hard-paste porcelain group by Aelteste Volkstedter Porzellanfabrik (Oldest Volkstedt), Rudolstadt, 1915. A fortune teller reads the palm of a young flower-seller while Cupid kneels at their feet with an open book. Beyond a charming genre scene, the composition is commonly read as an allegory of Love and Destiny: Cupid "prompts" the answer, suggesting that matters of the heart are decided as much by feeling as by fate. The modelling is crisp and consistent with Thuringian work of the period: compact three-figure arrangement on a rococo scroll base with green tufts and gilt
