Description

Rare English majolica set with bright green glaze, made by the Copeland & Garrett manufactory (Stoke-on-Trent), active between 1833 and 1847. The set consists of: 10 round plates (diameter 23.5 cm), with moulded leaf decoration; 2 oval bowls with one handle (length 26 cm); 1 large serving bowl/centre piece with two handles (length 30 cm). Additionally included, but not counted in the main set: another two-handled centrepiece, one handle restored; one cracked plate. All pieces bear the impressed Copeland & Garrett mark on the back, with model number. Condition: 10 plates, 2 bowls and 1 centrepiece in good condition, with minor signs of wear. One centrepiece and one plate show defects and are included as extras. For further information, photographs or technical details,
