Jean-Bruno Gassies (1786-1832) was a French painter of the early 19th century, mainly known for his genre works, historical scenes and portraits. An academic neoclassical painter, he was active in the artistic world of his time and exhibited at the Paris Salon, which shows a certain recognition in official circles. His painting is marked by a certain classical rigor, a careful composition and a sober palette, in the tradition of artists such as Jacques-Louis David or Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres
Visible at the Galerie Courcelles Antiquités, at 97 rue de Courcelles, in the 17th arrondissement.
