Description

Colette Gueden (1905-1999) was a renowned French interior designer who made her mark on the design world in the 1950s and 1960s. She worked on numerous decorating projects for prestigious clients, such as the famous fashion designer Christian Dior and actress Greta Garbo. Colette Gueden's work was known for its minimalist and sophisticated aesthetic, featuring skillful use of high-quality materials and muted colors. Today, Colette Gueden's work is considered emblematic of mid-20th-century French interior design, and her creations are sought after by collectors and design enthusiasts worldwide.
