Description

A very charming, nicely carved chimney-piece-surround, style Louis XV. Can be replaced as a frontmodel as well as a surround-model (deep sidepanels with tablet-retours). Beautiful carved cartouche in the center of the panelled linteau. The console, panelled jambs are topped by scrolled endblocks. The jambs are made out of one single block of marble, it's not always like that. This Belgian marble has a striking warmth, colors are hovering between soft-brown and orange with tones of grey and white. All parts are in optimal condition. We have original foyertiles in stock to finish the installation of this fireplace in the most original way. Will be delivered with old marble floortiles, Carrara end-or the same marble as this fireplace. Worldwide shipping. Delivery
