Description

Pair of Medici-shaped vases forming potpourris in finely chiseled and mercury-gilded bronze. The vases are decorated with friezes of antique-style figures, the lids pierced with palmettes and resting on sea-green marble bases decorated with mercury heads. Work attributed to Pierre Philippe Thomire 1751-1843. Empire period, early 19th century. Note: one marble counter-base has been glued back together and another has been redone, and there are small losses to the repairs on one lid (see photo). Free shipping in France and the European Union.
