

Indian Floral Rug After William Morris

3 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 308

Width : 240

Diameter : n°371

Description

Beautiful Indian floral rug inspired by William Morris. Circa 1960 William Morris was a British textile designer, poet, novelist, and artist, among other things. He is considered the father of the British Arts and Crafts movement, with many of his most notable works created in the mid- to late 19th century. His style was distinctive and featured bold floral patterns in vibrant colors. This beautiful Arts and Crafts designer rug is a vintage rug woven in India and inspired by his works. This rug emulates the style of William Morris with its bold patterns and beautiful colors. It is a large rug with a formal quality. It would make a beautiful addition to a Victorian home with hardwood floors and a large fireplace. It would also add a touch of authenticity to an Arts and Crafts home. You can also use it to add a

Dealer

SHART ANTIK TAPIS

Antique Carpets, Tapestries & Textiles

Mobile : 0617926662

10A rue de Sarraltroff

Reding 57445

contrasting point to a modern decor. Shades of ivory and gold, blood red, and petrol black are popular color combinations, and this rug has them in abundance. This magnificent Indian rug pays homage to one of the great masters of 19th-century design in its colors and pattern. Morris wrote numerous essays and published books on the "rules" and philosophy of his unique style, and many have imitated him over the years. This is a magnificent piece that will add elegance to any space! Size : 308 x 240 cm Condition : Wool wear throughout, color variations, and soiling of the fringes. Handmade rug, perfectly imperfect ;) Professionally washed rug *Video available upon request MY COMPLETE GALLERY