Description

Delightful mid-19th century travel writing box, made of burr wood with fine rosewood stringing. A small masterpiece of cabinetmaking, designed to combine elegance and functionality, crafted with remarkable attention to detail inside and out. The sloping lid opens to reveal a writing surface in blue velvet, complete with compartments for pens, inkwells and correspondence. It also conceals a secret drawer and hidden spaces, once used to keep documents or small valuables. Of the original pair of inkwells, one is still present, the other missing. An elegant yet practical piece, reflecting the refined taste and lifestyle of cultured 19th-century travelers. In very good condition, with the charm and patina of age. Dimensions: 25.5 × 34.5 × 9.5 cm (closed) - 44.5 cm (open). For further
