Description

French school circa 1815
Portrait of Madame Leblond
Oil on canvas
H. 66 cm; W. 55 cm
Named on the back
Comparable to the works of painters such as Louis Hersent, our portrait, unsigned, is certainly by a very good hand. Dressed in a beautiful orange dress and covered with a shawl certainly of unbleached silk, this woman wears a glove whose treatment is remarkable. Above her beautiful brown curls falling on the forehead, white aigrettes surmount an elegantly shaped bonnet.
