Description

Charming pair of armchairs with a typically Italian design from the 1950s/60s. Their slender silhouette, supported by fine metal legs finished with brass sabots, perfectly illustrates the elegant and light aesthetic of this period. Entirely covered in a blue fabric with stylized plant motifs, these armchairs combine comfort and refinement. Their soft and welcoming lines make them ideal seats for both a living room and a reading area. Period: circa 1955-1965 Origin: Italy Base: black metal and brass Upholstery: blue fabric with floral motifs (in good general condition) Condition: very good structural condition, clean fabric (some signs of use consistent with age) An elegant and timeless duo that will find its place in a vintage or contemporary interior.
