Description

This 16th century Virgin of Calvary is made of carved wood with a slightly curved back. At the origin of every Calvary stand 3 figures: Christ, St John and Mary. This Mater Dolorosa or Mother of Sorrows (who stands), wears the veil and the wimple, as well as a long coat with marked folds, typical of Gothic art. At chest height, she delicately joins her hands and expresses her suffering, her pain in restraint by a very softened and peaceful vision. The execution of the face, the hands, the drapes is a very beautiful example of 16th century sculpture. This sculpture is in good condition with wear due to time. Comes from a large private collection. Dimensions: H 40 cm / L 15 cm / 19 cm Later wooden base L12 cm / 19.5 cm / H 2 cm
