Description

Antique studio easel and painter's easel in the shape of a lyre with its original patina. Made of blackened wood and adjustable in height by rack, it is from the end of the 19th century. In its original condition, straight from the studio with its small defects and all its charm. Traces of paint and drawing hooks, superb patina. Small old restorations but very good stability. It could have been used by great painters, who knows? Dimensions: height 177 cm and max width 68 cm. Full of charm.
