Description

Sheet metal and tassel pendant light attributed to Maison Jansen, 1970s. Maison Jansen, a prestigious Parisian interior design house founded in 1880 by Jean-Henri Jansen. The first interior design firm with international reach, Jansen furnished the palaces of royal families, heads of state, and icons such as Jackie Kennedy. The chandelier you own reflects the house's iconic style: neoclassical refinement, quality materials, and impeccable finishes. Combining a gilded metal structure, crystal tassels, and balanced volumes, it embodies 20th-century French elegance. Jansen lighting fixtures were custom-made, often in small series, for demanding clients. This chandelier is therefore a rare, decorative piece steeped in history. Perfect for enhancing a classic or eclectic interior with a
