

Large Qajar Persian Engraved Brass Candlestick, C.1880

700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Brass

Description

Qajar

Persia, circa 1880. Substantial cast brass candlestick with tulip nozzle and triangular pyramidal base, profusely hand-engraved (qalam-zani). Upper nastaliq inscriptions; lower hunting and courtly scenes with animals and birds. Formerly wired: central channel and two small holes.

Rotate to display as a candlestick with no visible hole, or re-equip as a distinctive lamp base. Honest patina, rubbing to mastic, small edge bruises; sturdy. Measurements and weight as above.
