

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Neoclassical Chandelier In Gilded Wrought Iron And Crystals With 4 Light Arms Attributed To Baguès

1 350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Description

Elegant chandelier attributed to Baguès in wrought and gilded iron in the neoclassical style with 4 scrolled light arms, a sheaf of pearls in the central part surrounded by 4 uprights with scrolls of foliage, in the upper part a Greek decoration finished with a pearl spinning top, then joining in the shape of a pagoda which gives it a Japanese look. At the top of the chandelier a cup receiving another sheaf of pearls with colored crystal drops. Many crystals, pearls, drops, crystal flowers in purple, amber, smoke and orange. Good general condition with a beautiful patina to the gilding. Electrification in good condition and ready to be installed. According to the photos the chandelier is equipped with candle flame type bulbs (identical to those used during the renovation of the lights of the Palace of

Dealer

Patrick Etienne Antiquités

Lights shipped worldwide

Tel : 0614424702

Rue du château

Ancenis 44150

Versailles) or classic bulbs. The photos were taken with different lighting moods in order to have a good idea of the rendering. Dating 1940-1950
Dimensions: Diameter 51cm Height 64cm Height with chain 99cm and can be reduced to 75cm if you take off links of the chain Transport on estimate